CONVERSATION

God Sent Rain

BASED ON 1 KINGS 18:1-2,41-46

WEEKLY VERSE: God is good to us.
Psalm 73:1

LIFE POINT: God can do all things.

The rain had not come for three years. No rain fell to make the grass and plants grow. The people and animals needed food to eat and water to drink.

God told Elijah, "I will send rain. Go and tell the king."

After Elijah told the king, Elijah and his helper went up to the top of a mountain. Elijah prayed (talked to God).

Elijah told his helper, "Go and look toward the sea."

The helper looked but saw nothing. He told Elijah.

"Go back," Elijah said.

One, two, three, four, five, six times, Elijah told his helper to go back and look. On the seventh time, Elijah's helper said, "I see a small cloud coming up over the sea. The cloud is about the size of a man's hand."

Elijah knew God had heard his prayer.

Soon there were more dark clouds in the sky. The wind began to blow. Rain began to fall. A heavy rain poured. Elijah ran down the mountain to the city.
